

You are invited to the FREE
Chesterfield /Union Township
Celebration of the

Madison County Bicentennial

Saturday
March 11, 2023

Millcreek Civic Center
Memorial Hall
Chesterfield, Indiana

Doors Open at 10:00 a.m.

Displays of Historical Memorabilia

Coffee, Juice, and snacks (followed by a brunch later)

At 10:30 a.m.

Stephen Jackson (Madison County Historian)

We are not only fortunate to have Steve Jackson's extensive research on the history of Madison County, but also his interesting, educational and entertaining programs. He is the recipient of numerous state and local awards for his work to maintain the history of our community for future generations.

PowerPoint presentation on

"History of Union Township & Chesterfield" followed by

Introduction of Descendants of Union Township Founders

FREE Brunch catered by Judi Baker

Program and brunch should conclude by approximately Noon

Please make a reservation by calling the town hall at 765-378-3331 or townofchesterfield@yahoo.com

This program is presented by the Town of Chesterfield and the Union Township contingent of the Madison County Bicentennial Committee